

Custom Forms

The PatientOS "Form Editor" may be used to create new registration, scheduling, order or any other data entry form.

No programming is required, simply use the export function to save the form to a local file.

This file can then be imported into any new system.

The community can share custom forms on the Wiki.
